President's Foreword

Welcome to the 30th Yearbook!

Well, another year and another Yearbook. And I must say this year's looks fantastic in colour, just as it did last year. And it's been another one of those years!

In terms of political cartooning, any let up we thought might happen after the Rudd-Gillard-Rudd years proved a no-show with Tony Abbott and his gang enjoying just as much attention from our amazing political cartoonists. In fact, I'd hazard a guess at saying this latest government has enjoyed the richest bonanza that Australian cartooning has ever had to offer. And at the time of writing, that doesn't look like letting up.

If one thing can be said for Australian politics, it's that we'll never be short of subjects. The only thing is now these guys have started writing the scripts themselves! All we need to do is furiously scribble to keep up. And keep up we have as you'll see in our Editorial/Political cartooning section. Like all our sections, this is devoted solely to editorial and political cartoons and is always very popular. Our other categories include Caricaturist, Comic Strip Cartoonist, Comic Book Artist, Single Gag Cartoonist and Illustrator. But hold the phone! We also have a brand spankin' new award this year – The Stanley Award for Animation Cartoonist! Yes, that's right; at long last we are recognising animation in our annual awards and, speaking as an ex-animator myself, not before time! I think you'll agree the quality of entrants here is simply magnificent. It's gonna be a hard decision that's for sure.

On that subject, be sure you vote correctly. I know that sounds dumb to have to say, but each year our good mates at KPMG tell us they don't always get all the Voting Forms that were sent out and some are informally filled in, rendering them invalid. Make sure you choose three cartoonists from each section and place them in the according part of the Voting Form. This is the major purpose of the Voting Book you now hold in your hands! Don't waste your opportunity to have your say in who takes home the gongs!

KPMG have been our friends in helping us with the votes each year and they keep things completely outside of us when it comes to voting. They are just one of a handful of brilliant and supportive folk who sponsor us each year in doing what we do and we couldn't do it without them. They are: The Herald Sun, The Australian, Copyright Agency/Viscopy, the Media, Entertainment and Arts Alliance, Wacom, Supanova and Media Super. On behalf of the ACA I'd like to say a massive thank you to all these fine folk and extend a warm welcome to Media Super and Supanova who have joined The Stanley Awards for the first time.

That might do me for now. I'm hanging to get into this book and begin the arduous process of choosing who gets my vote. Remember that the ACA exists for peer support and the Stanleys are our most public means of showing that support in recognising our best. So make your vote count and get it into the mail pronto!

So quit reading this and get into it!

Cartooning forever!

Jules!

STAN CROSS AWARDS VOTING RULES 2014

ELIGIBILITY

- To be eligible in any category, including "Cartoonist of the Year", a cartoonist must be a financial full member of the Australian Cartoonists' Association.
- All artwork must have been originally published between July 1, 2013 and August 30, 2014.
- All artwork must meet the criteria of the category as described at the start of each section of the Year Book.
- Eligible members are permitted to enter two categories only.
- The cartoonist must be represented in this Year Book - members whose work is not displayed or who display a not in competition logo are not eligible for a Stanley Award.

JUDGING PROCEDURE

- All financial full members are eligible to vote.
- All voting must be completed only on the official ballot form supplied with this Year Book.
- The Stanley Awards ballot form must be returned by the date designated on the ballot form and must be addressed to:

THE STANLEY AWARDS,
KPMG
P.O. BOX H67
AUSTRALIA SQUARE
SYDNEY NSW 2000

- Members are asked to vote 1, 2 or 3 in order of preference in each category.
- Participating members casting their votes MUST fill in all categories and all preferences. Preference lines left blank will result in the whole voting form being declared invalid.
- Cartoonists receiving a first preference vote will receive 5 (five) points, a second preference will receive 3 (three) points, and a third preference 1 (one) point. The cartoonist with the most points in a category will receive the award.
- In the event of a draw, the cartoonist receiving the most first preferences in the category will receive the award.
- Ballot results will be tabulated by our independent arbiter, KPMG, whose declaration will be final. No correspondence will be entered into.
- Ballot forms received after the nominated closing date will not be considered in the tabulation.

THE AUSTRALIAN CARTOONIST OF THE YEAR - GOLD STANLEY AWARD

- Regardless of the category or categories entered, all cartoonists in the 2013 Year Book are eligible to be voted as the outstanding The Australian Cartoonist of the Year.
- Cartoonists receiving a first preference vote will receive 5 (five) points, a second preference will receive 3 (three) points, and a third preference 1 (one) point - the cartoonist with the most points in a category will be the recipient of the award. In the event of a draw, the cartoonist receiving the most first preferences in the category will be the recipient of the award.

CONTRIBUTION TO CARTOONING - THE JIM RUSSELL AWARD

Nominations are invited by the committee of the Australian Cartoonists' Association for individuals or corporations considered by the nominator to have contributed the most to, or advanced the cause of Australian cartooning. The committee will make the award from the nominations received. Nominees for the Jim Russell Award need not be members of the Australian Cartoonists' Association or have work in the Year Book.
